RacingLine Performance Ltd – 20% Off Software Promotional Campaign Terms & Conditions

Promotional Campaign Supported by Quattro-Tech Ltd

These Terms & Conditions govern the RacingLine Performance Ltd 20% Off Software Promotional Campaign (the "Promotion"), supported by Quattro-Tech Ltd, trading as Quattro-Tech Performance ("QTP" or "the Company").

By placing an eligible order during the promotional period, customers agree to the following Terms & Conditions.

1. Promotion Scope

1.1. This Promotion applies exclusively to eligible RacingLine Performance Ltd ECU and/or TCU software purchased through the official Quattro-Tech Performance website.

1.2. The Promotion provides a 20% discount on eligible RacingLine Performance ECU and/or TCU software, including standard installation, subject to the conditions outlined below.

1.3. The Promotion does not extend to other RacingLine Performance products, hardware upgrades, accessories, additional services or software from alternative manufacturers unless expressly stated.

1.4. All software installations are subject to vehicle compatibility, software availability and the applicable technical requirements specified by RacingLine Performance Ltd.

2. Promotional Period & Eligibility

2.1. The Promotion is valid for qualifying orders placed between 1st November 2026 and 1st December 2026 (inclusive).

2.2. To qualify, orders must be placed through the official Quattro-Tech Performance website: www.qtperformance.co.uk.

2.3. The Promotion cannot be applied retrospectively to orders placed before the promotional start date or after the promotional closing date.

2.4. All qualifying orders are subject to product availability, vehicle compatibility and workshop scheduling.

3. Promotional Pricing & Discount Application

3.1. All eligible RacingLine Performance ECU and/or TCU software prices displayed on the QTP website during the promotional period include both the software supply and standard installation costs, with the 20% promotional discount already applied.

3.2. Customers are not required to enter a promotional code to receive the advertised discount, provided the eligible software is purchased through the QTP website during the promotional period.

3.3. The Promotion cannot be used in conjunction with the Company's existing 5% First Order Discount.

3.4. The 20% promotional discount cannot be combined with any other discount, promotional offer, package deal or special pricing arrangement.

3.5. The promotional discount applies only to qualifying RacingLine Performance software and its standard installation. Any additional labour, components or services required outside the standard installation are excluded from the promotional discount.

4. Software Installation & Additional Labour Charges

4.1. The promotional price includes standard installation and flashing of the purchased RacingLine Performance ECU and/or TCU software under normal workshop conditions.

4.2. In certain circumstances, additional labour charges may apply where complications arise during the software installation process. These may include, but are not limited to:

- Additional diagnostic work required before software installation.
- Vehicle-specific ECU or TCU access restrictions.
- Software communication or flashing complications requiring additional technician time.
- Additional procedures necessary to complete the installation safely and correctly.

4.3. Where additional work is identified, the Company will notify the customer of the issue and explain any associated costs as soon as reasonably practicable.

4.4. No chargeable additional work will be undertaken without the customer's prior authorisation.

4.5. Any additional labour or services required outside the standard software installation will be charged separately from the advertised promotional price.

5. Promotion Limitations & Exclusions

5.1. The Promotion is non-transferable, has no cash value and cannot be exchanged for cash, credit or alternative products or services.

5.2. The Promotion cannot be combined with the Company's 5% First Order Discount or any other promotional offer, discount or package deal.

5.3. The Promotion is applicable only to qualifying purchases completed within the specified promotional period.

5.4. All RacingLine Performance ECU and/or TCU software remains subject to the manufacturer's applicable software specifications, compatibility requirements and warranty conditions.

5.5. The Promotion does not include any additional vehicle modifications, hardware upgrades, repairs or diagnostic work that may be required to make a vehicle suitable for software installation.

6. Orders & Workshop Availability

6.1. All software installation appointments are subject to workshop availability and will be arranged following confirmation of the customer's order.

6.2. Customers who place qualifying orders within the promotional period will retain their promotional pricing where the installation appointment is scheduled for a date after 1st December 2026.

6.3. The Company reserves the right to contact customers where additional information is required to confirm vehicle compatibility or installation requirements before proceeding with an order.

6.4. Where a vehicle is found to be incompatible with the purchased software, the Company will contact the customer to discuss the available options, including any applicable cancellation or refund arrangements.

7. General Terms

7.1. Quattro-Tech Ltd reserves the right to amend, suspend or withdraw the Promotion where reasonably necessary. Any changes will not affect qualifying orders already accepted by the Company.

7.2. All purchases remain subject to the Company's standard Terms & Conditions of Sale and applicable consumer protection legislation.

7.3. Nothing in these Terms & Conditions affects the customer's statutory rights.

7.4. By placing an eligible order during the promotional period, customers acknowledge and accept the conditions of this Promotion.
